

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR SENIOR OFFICERS AND INSIDERS CTT – CORREIOS DE PORTUGAL, S.A.

Chapter I Definitions

For the purposes of this Code, and unless expressly indicated otherwise, the definitions hereunder have the following meaning:

“CMVM”	the Portuguese Securities Market Commission.
“Code of Conduct” or “Code”	this code of conduct applicable to Senior Officers and Insiders.
“Code VM”	the Portuguese Securities Code approved by Decree-Law no. 486/99, of 13 November, in its updated version.
“CSC”	the Portuguese Companies Code, approved by the Decree-Law no. 262/86, of 2 September, in its updated version.
“CTT” or “Company”	CTT – Correios de Portugal, S.A.
“Senior Officers”	means: (a) the Members of the Management and Supervisory bodies of CTT; and (b) any other high-level staff of CTT and/or Group companies that the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee (within their delegated powers) qualifies as such and due to the fact that they (i) have regular access to Inside Information and (ii) may take management decisions that may affect future evolution and business perspectives of CTT.
“Group”	the companies that are in a control or group relationship with CTT, pursuant to the terms and for the purposes of Article 21 of the Code VM.
“Inside Information”	means: (a) all undisclosed information (i) relating directly or indirectly to CTT or to securities or to other financial instruments issued by CTT, (ii) which has a precise nature and, (iii) if disclosed, would be likely to have a significant effect on the price of those

- securities or financial instruments or on the price of related derivative financial instruments;
- (b) it is considered that an information has a “precise nature” if it refers to a set of existing/occurring circumstances/events or which may reasonably be expected to occur and is specific enough to enable a conclusion as to the possible effect of that set of circumstances/events on the price of the securities or other financial instruments issued by CTT or the related derivative financial instruments, and
 - (c) it is considered as “likely to have a significant effect on the price”, the information a reasonable investor would be likely to use as part of the basis of his/her investment decisions.

“Insiders”

any person working for CTT and/or Group companies, under a contract of employment or otherwise performing duties that may enable access to Inside Information, under the terms and for the purposes of the Market Abuse Regime.

“Market Manipulation”

means any behaviours (namely, disseminating false, incomplete, exaggerated, tendentious or misleading information, or entering into a transaction, or placing orders to trade or other behaviours likely to give false, incomplete, exaggerated, tendentious or misleading signals or to secure abnormal or artificial levels of price, supply or demand) qualified as such in the Market Abuse Regime.

“Limited period”

any period when the Board of Directors and/or the Executive Committee decides and informs the Senior Officers and/or Insiders (or part thereof) that they are prohibited to conduct any Relevant Transaction because it is a period when, in view of the specific circumstances, an objective suspicion could arise concerning the use of Inside Information.

“Quiet period”

the period of 30 calendar days prior to the public announcement of an interim financial report or of a year-end report that CTT must or decides to make public (including the day of the announcement).

“Natural/Legal Persons

related to the Senior Officers” means, under the terms and for the purposes of the Market Abuse Regime:

- (a) the spouse of a Senior Officer or any person legally equivalent to the spouse;
- (b) dependent children of the Senior Officer , as well as other relatives who have been sharing the same household with the Senior Officer for at least 1 (one) year as at the date of the transaction, and

- (c) a legal person, trust or civil partnership
 - (i) the managerial responsibilities of which are discharged by the Senior Officer or by a person referred to in (a) or (b);
 - (ii) which is directly or indirectly controlled by the Senior Officer, or by the person referred to as such in (a) or (b) or set up for their benefit;
 - (iii) economic interests of which are substantially equivalent to those of the Senior Officer or of the person referred to in (a) or (b).

“Natural/legal Persons related to the Members of the Management/Supervisory Bodies” means, under the terms and for the purposes of Article 447 of the CSC:

- (a) the not legally separated spouse (regardless of the matrimonial property regime) and underage descendants of the Member of the Management/Supervisory Body;
- (b) natural persons on behalf of whom shares or bonds have been acquired on behalf of a Member of the Management/Supervisory Body or on behalf of the natural persons referred to in (a);
- (c) companies in which the Member of the Management/Supervisory Body or the natural persons referred to in (a) are partners with unlimited liability, which they manage or are members of the management or supervisory bodies of; and
- (d) companies where the Member of the Management/Supervisory Body, either individually or combined with the natural persons referred to in (a) and (b), holds, at least, half of the share capital or of the corresponding voting rights.

“Market Abuse Regime”

means the Market Abuse Regime resulting from the EU Regulation, additional Community legislation, and legal and regulatory national provisions in force within this scope or matter

“EU Regulation”

means the Regulation (EU) No 596/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 April 2014 on market abuse (market abuse regulation) and repealing Directive 2003/6/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council and Commission

Directives 2003/124/EC, 2003/125/EC and 2004/72/EC, in its latest version “Relevant transactions” all transactions concerning the securities or other financial instruments issued by CTT or related thereto (the transactions involving own shares conducted by CTT within share buy-back programmes in accordance with the legal provisions are not subject to this Code).

Chapter Two

General Rules on Treatment of Information and Transactions

1. General Prohibitions

- 1.1. Senior Officers and Insiders having, for any reason, Inside Information remain confidential until they are disclosed by CTT (under the terms of the Market Abuse Regime) and are prohibited to disclose such information to anyone, unless within the normal course of their profession or exercise of their functions, or to use such information before it is made public by the legal means. In any case, the referred disclosure of information within the normal course of their profession or exercise of their functions may only occur if the person receiving it is subject to a confidentiality obligation.
- 1.2. Senior Officers and Insiders are prohibited (a) to engage in, or recommend, or induce someone to engage in a Relevant Transaction, for their own account or for the account of a third party, directly or indirectly, when in possession of Inside Information, (including cancelling or amending an order before having that information) and (b) to engage in Market Manipulation.
- 1.3. Both (a) Senior Officers and (b) Insiders involved in the process of preparing the year-end, half-yearly and/or quarterly results and/or financial information of CTT and/or of companies of the Group are also prohibited to engage, recommend or induce someone to engage in any Relevant Transaction, within the Quiet Periods, for their own account or for the account of a third party, directly or indirectly.
- 1.4. CTT may authorize the above-mentioned Senior Officers and Insiders to conduct Relevant Transactions, for their own account or for the account of a third party, during a Quiet Period within the terms foreseen in the Market Abuse Regime.
- 1.5. All Senior Officers and Insiders notified for that purpose by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee of CTT, are also prohibited to engage in, recommend or induce anyone to engage in any Relevant Transaction, for its own account or for the account of a third party, directly or indirectly, within the Quiet Periods.

2. Communication Duties

- 2.1 The Senior Officers shall send to the Company Secretary the forms in Annexes I to III of this Code duly completed and signed, within the deadlines, conditions and terms mentioned, namely (a) upon their appointment, (b) upon (i) transactions related to shares or debt instruments of CTT and/or to derivatives or other financial instruments linked to them and/or (ii) transactions on shares and bonds issued by CTT and by Group companies, and (c) at the end of every year.
- 2.2 The Company shall convey the information sent by the Senior Officers, in compliance with Annexes I to III of this Code, to the CMVM and/or the market in accordance with the applicable Community and national legal and regulatory provisions.
- 2.3 The obligations referred to in the previous paragraphs are independent of the duties to which Natural/Legal Persons related to the Senior Officers and Natural/Legal Persons related to the Members of Management/Supervisory Bodies are bound within the applicable EU and national legal or regulatory provisions.
- 2.4 Each Senior Officer is bound to notify in writing the Natural/Legal Persons related to the Senior Officer and, if applicable, the Natural/Legal Persons related to Member of the Management/Supervisory Bodies on the obligations provided for in this Code, as well as on the obligations mentioned above to which they are bound due to their relationship with the Senior Officer and shall keep a copy of that notification. Each Senior Officer must promptly provide Company Secretary with information enabling CTT to draw up and keep up to date a list of the Persons/Entities related to the Manager and the Persons/Entities related to the Member of the Management/Supervisory Body in question in order to comply with the applicable Community and national legal or regulatory provisions.

3. Entry into force, Application and Infringements

- 3.1 This Code shall enter into force on the date of its approval by the Board of Directors.
- 3.2 The Board of Directors shall provide for the adequate disclosure of this Code of Conduct to ensure its proper and permanent knowledge by the Senior Officers and Insiders.
- 3.3 Within 8 (eight) working days counting from the entry into force of this Code and/or of its qualification as such, as applicable, (i) all Senior Officers and (ii) Insiders referred to in 1.3 above shall send to the General Secretariat a formal declaration of full acceptance of the terms and conditions set forth in this Code.
- 3.4 The provisions of the preceding paragraph are also applicable in case of amendment to this Code.

- 3.5 The non-compliance with the provisions of this Code is an infringement that shall result in disciplinary action in accordance with the gravity of the infringement, without prejudice to public and/or criminal liability which may ensue for each Senior Officer and /or Insider, in accordance with the applicable law.

Approved on 08 April 2014 and amended on 12 July 2016, 23 January 2019 and 29 July 2024.
